in merger and you believe in striking down the uniformity clause.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Time.

SENATOR BROWN: I think that there is a middle ground. Thank you.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Thank you, Senator Brown. While the Legislature is in session and capable of transacting business, I propose to sign and do hereby sign LB 822A, (LB) 822, (LB) 777. And Senator Stuhr announces that the following guests are visiting the Legislature, there are students here from West Fairview School in Beaver Crossing (introduced teacher). They are seated in the north balcony. Will you all stand and be recognized, please. Welcome to the Legislature. Senator Raikes, your light is next. Senator Raikes, your light is next.

SENATOR RAIKES: Thank you, Madam President, members of the Legislature. I'd yield my time to Senator Chambers.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you, Madam President. Thank you, Senator Raikes. Is Senator Wickersham...oh, I see him, he's still available. Senator Wickersham, I would like to continue the type of discussion we were having earlier. And I hope what I'm asking is not confusing.

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: It's not to me.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay, thank you. Now, Senator Wickersham, I'm trying to get into the record as clearly as I can what the meaning of language is, so I'm going to go again to page 4...

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: Although, Senator, I would caution you that the Supreme Court, on various occasions, has said that when people vote on these amendments they don't know why people voted for them, and they disregard all of this. But...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Right, but that is when they have a petition campaign, and there is no way to know why individuals signed the
